Fesco Transport Group, the largest Russian transporter of shipping containers, agreed to sell its half of National Container for $900 million, Vedomosti reported Monday, citing unidentified people familiar with the matter.

Fesco will sell its stake to co-owner Vitaly Yuzhilin's First Quantum holding company and his partner Andrei Kobzar, the newspaper said. Fesco rejected a $440 million offer for the 50 percent stake at the start of the year, according to Vedomosti. ☒
