Parken Sport & Entertainment, the owner of Denmark's leading football club F.C. Copenhagen, said Friday that it hasn't been in talks with any new investors about a share issue nor has it been discussing a sale of assets.

Danish media, including Ekstra Bladet, have reported that Loenmodtagernes Dyrtidsfond, which owns a stake in Parken, has held a meeting with Chelsea owner Roman Abramovich's son, Arkady, regarding possibly buying a stake in Parken.☒
