

Markets Down First Day in 4

By The Moscow Times

August 16, 2011

The  Moscow Times

Stocks declined for the first day in four, led by Tatneft, as oil and metals dropped after German growth almost stalled.

The MICEX Index lost 2 percent to 1,481.18 by the 6:45 p.m. close, paring an earlier loss of as much as 3.5 percent. Oil producer Tatneft sank 3.6 percent, its biggest drop in almost a week. Steelmaker Severstal lost 2.6 percent. Of the 30 stocks in the gauge, 25 retreated while five advanced. The dollar-denominated RTS Index fell 1.4 percent to 1,632.31.

Urals crude oil, the country's main export blend, dropped 0.85 percent to $108.46 per barrel, while oil in New York slid as much as $2.26, or 2.6 percent to $85.62 a barrel.

European gross domestic product growth slowed more than forecast in the second quarter as Germany's recovery almost came to a halt, while manufacturing in the New York region unexpectedly contracted in August for a third month, a report yesterday showed.

Miner Norilsk Nickel slid 2.5 percent to 6,696 rubles. Three-month copper on the London

Metal Exchange fell as much as 1.3 percent to $8,794 per metric ton. Zinc, lead and aluminum also dropped.

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2011/08/16/markets-down-first-day-in-4-a8943>