

Kazakh Activists Jailed

February 26, 2012

The  Moscow Times

ALMATY, Kazakhstan — A Kazakh court has sentenced two opposition leaders to 15-day prison terms for organizing a rally for democratic change.

Opposition leaders Amirzhan Kosanov and Bolat Abilov were detained before the rally. An official from their party said Saturday that both began a hunger strike after sentencing.

(Reuters)

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/02/26/kazakh-activists-jailed-a12887>