Sberbank said net income advanced 13 percent in the first five months from the same period last year.

Profit under Russian accounting standards jumped to 155 billion rubles ($4.8 billion) from 136.9 billion rubles in 2011, according to the lender's website.

Net interest income, the difference between what a bank earns from lending and what it pays on deposits, gained 26 percent for the first five months compared with the same period in 2011. Non-performing loans declined to 3.3 percent from 3.4 percent.
