

Oil Output Reaches Post-Soviet High

By The Moscow Times

November 05, 2012

The  Moscow Times

Oil output hit a post-Soviet high in October as a beefed-up Rosneft, soon to be the world's biggest crude supplier, dug deeper into hard-to-reach fields. The increased drilling helped lift oil output 0.5 percent in October to 10.46 million barrels per day, data from the Energy Ministry showed.

(Reuters)

Related articles:

- Rosneft Delivers a Blow to Market Economy
- TNK-BP Deal a Boon for State, Welcome Sign for Foreigners
- Breaks to Boost Oil Output

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/11/05/oil-output-reaches-post-soviet-high-a19131>