

Russia Declares Day of Mourning After 60 Killed in Kemerovo Fire Tragedy

March 27, 2018

Kirill Kukhmar / TASS

The Kremlin has declared March 28 a national day of mourning for the victims of a deadly shopping mall fire in the Russian city of Kemerovo.

Sixty people, most thought to be children, were killed when a fire swept through the Winter Cherry mall in Kemerovo on Sunday afternoon.

The head of Russia's Investigative Committee briefed President Vladimir Putin on Tuesday, saying that the fire is believed to have been caused by a short-circuit on one of the upper-floors of the mall.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2018/03/27/russia-declares-day-of-mourning-after-at-least-64-killed-kemerovo-fire-tragedy-a60955>