

Cosmoscow - International Contemporary Art Fair

August 29, 2020

Save the date for the annual international contemporary art fair which will take place on September, 10 - 13th in Gostiny Dvor (exhibition hall close to the Red Square). It is a nice opportunity to enjoy contemporary art, talk to representatives from different galleries or find piece of art you want to invest in.

Last year 67 Russian and international galleries presented their works for the public. We had a great time visiting the art fair with friends. It is also an interesting event for the whole family to attend, as older kids and teens often do enjoy contemporary art as well.

The art fair is open for the general public 11-13th of September. Check the website for additional information on opening hours and you can also buy tickets on the site.

The exhibition hall is very spacious and hence allows to keep distance.
