

In Photos: Record-Breaking Cold Grips Moscow

February 09, 2021

Much of Russia has been invaded by a blast of bitter winter weather this week — in the country's northern regions, temperatures as low as minus 40 Celsius were recorded. Moscow, too, is experiencing some of the decade's coldest weather, with temperatures plummeting to the low twenties. Here is a closer look at how Muscovites are surviving the cold in true Russian fashion:

Only the bravest venture out to Red Square at this time of year. Sergei Vedyashkin / Moskva News Agency

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2021/02/09/in-photos-record-breaking-cold-grips-moscow-a72871>