

In Photos: Red Square Hosts International Military Music Festival

August 31, 2021

Every year when summer meets autumn, Red Square is transformed into a stage for the Spasskaya Tower International Music Festival. Thousands of spectators can see 22 military bands and groups from across the globe marching, twirling, dancing and high-stepping with the Kremlin and St. Basil's Cathedral as the backdrop. Here's a look at scenes from this year's event, which runs through Sept. 5:
