

Moscow's Annual Funeral Expo, in Photos

November 03, 2023

Moscow hosted Nekropol World Russia, the country's largest funeral exposition that has been held annually since 1993, this week. This year's event featured dozens of funeral companies, whose exhibitions ranged from the morbid to the absurd, in addition to sample graves for soldiers killed in Ukraine. Here's a look at photos from the three-day event:
