

2 Years After ‘Partial’ Mobilization, How Do Georgians View Russian Emigres?

September 20, 2024

Saturday, Sept. 21, 2024 marks two years since Vladimir Putin’s “partial” mobilization order, which prompted thousands of Russians to flee the country, many heading to nearby Georgia.

We spoke with Georgians in Tbilisi about how they view the lasting impacts of Russian wartime emigres living in the country.
